C.I.O. Leaders Strive To Halt Back to Work Movements In Steel

East Chicago, Ind., July 2.—(AP)—Steel furnaces turned the night skies red along the 7-state strike front tonight while C. I. O. leaders strove to rally their forces against new back-to-work movements.

More strike-locked mills opened at Massillon, Ohio. Republic Steel defied the threat of a "damned bloody battle," voiced by a C. I. O. picket captain, and moved 115 automobile-loads of workers into its Massillon plant—under the bayonet protection of Ohio national guardsmen—without violence.

STRIKE BALLOT AUTHORIZED BY RAILWAY LABOR

800,000 Members To Vote On Settling Their Demands

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—Representatives of 14 "non-operating" railway labor organizations in the United States today authorized a strike vote among their 800,000 members.

Action was taken after the presidents of the 14 unions reported their conferences with railroad management had failed to produce a satisfactory settlement of demands for a wage increase of 20 cents an hour and employment guarantees.

George M. Harrison of Cincinnati, president of the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks and chairman of the negotiating committee, said strike ballots would be distributed as soon as they could be obtained from the printers, and that the results of the vote probably would be announced here within a month.

A statement issued by Harrison predicted the employees will vote overwhelmingly in favor of a strike if a satisfactory settlement cannot be reached.

The chiefs of the five "operating" brotherhoods, with a membership of 300,000, recently instituted a strike referendum, but pointed out that their action did not necessarily preclude a walkout. They explained the move was designed in part to hasten negotiations with the carriers.

Demands of both groups were presented to the railroads last March.

Germ of Infantile Paralysis Isolated

Glendale, Calif., July 2.—(AP)—The Glendale News-Press said today Dr. Edward Carl Rosenow, bacteriologist connected with the May Foundation, had succeeded in isolating the germ causing infantile paralysis.

Dr. Rosenow first came to Los Angeles in 1934 during the infantile paralysis epidemic.

Many of his experiments, the newspaper said, were conducted at Los Angeles County hospital and he was assisted by Drs. E. T. Remmen and O. J. Sloan.

The newspaper said it is reasonable to assume in the near future a serum or anti-toxin to combat infantile paralysis will be developed.

Weather

For Jacksonville and vicinity: Fair today and tomorrow, not much change in temperature.

The Norbury Sanatorium, cooperative observer for the U. S. Weather Bureau, last night gave temperatures as High 87; Low 57 and Current 85.

Illinois: Fair Saturday and Sunday; somewhat warmer in south portion Saturday; continued warm Sunday.

Indiana: Fair Saturday and Sunday; somewhat warmer Saturday; continued warm Sunday.

Wisconsin: Generally fair in south, somewhat unsettled in north, somewhat warmer in southwest and northeast portions Saturday; Sunday unsettled, local showers and cooler in central and west portions by afternoon or night.

Missouri: Fair Saturday and Sunday, except possibly local showers in northwest portion Sunday; somewhat warmer in east and south portions Saturday; cooler in northwest Sunday.

Iowa: Generally fair in east and south, possibly local showers in northwest, somewhat warmer in extreme east Saturday; Sunday local showers and cooler by afternoon or night.

EVACUATION OF RUSSIAN ARMY BRINGS RELIEF

Agreement Hailed As Averting A War Crisis

Newspaper Extras Flood The Streets of Tokyo, Japan

Tokyo, July 3.—(Saturday)—(AP)—Russia's agreement to evacuate her forces from the disputed Amur river islands was received today with intense relief throughout Japan.

Cabinet ministers expressed their deepest satisfaction that possible war had been averted.

Newspapers flooded the streets with extras.

Tokyo, July 2.—(AP)—Japanese and Russian armed forces continued today to gather along the Amur river near the scene of their recent river battle. The Japanese army and Manchoukuo government spoke of forcible measures to maintain what they called "freedom of navigation" on the Amur.

In Moscow the Japanese ambassador announced the Soviet government had promised to evacuate the Amur trouble zone and that if this were carried out Japan would consider the incident closed satisfactorily.

The emperor conferred with Field Marshal Prince Kotohito Kanin, chief of the general staff, and General Gen. Sugiyama, war minister, who submitted reports on the Amur crisis.

The cabinet met and it was understood General Sugiyama told his colleagues that although he did not believe the situation would become worse the army was exercising "utmost vigilance."

A government spokesman said any decision as to removal of Japanese forces from the vicinity of the Amur clash was "a matter for the supreme command"—indicating decisions were being left to the military.

The Japanese press, however, apparently at government inspiration, showed marked restraint, generally expressing confidence war would be averted.

Great Britain Will Not Agree to Plan Of Germany, Italy

Refuses to Drop Spanish Patrol or Recognize Both Sides in War

London, July 2.—(AP)—Britain tonight promptly rejected a proposal of Italy and Germany that the naval patrol of Spanish coasts be abandoned and belligerent rights be accorded both parties in the Spanish civil war.

A German source, however, said envoys of other nations to whom the proposal was made had agreed to refer it to their governments.

The Italo-German plan was laid before the directing sub-committee of the 27-nation committee seeking to isolate the Spanish conflict.

British rejection was considered to bring the whole European controversy over control to a stalemate. The sub-committee adjourned until next week, when other nations in the full committee will be called in for a review of the situation, which diplomats admitted was grave.

Alfonso's Daughter Gives Birth to Son

Rome, July 2.—(AP)—Princess Torlonia, eldest daughter of former King Alfonso of Spain, tonight gave birth to a son, her second child.

The former king and former Queen Victoria, who have been estranged for some time, met their daughter's bedside soon after and reports that their meeting was extremely cordial gave rise to a suggestion of a possible reconciliation.

Princess Torlonia, the Infanta Beatriz, is the wife of Prince Alessandro Torlonia, a former American school boy athlete.

Fees are Reduced At U. of Missouri

St. Louis, July 2.—(AP)—Next year's University of Missouri students were saved about $250,000 by action of the board of curators today in cutting fees an average of 31 per cent.

The new schedule sets a flat rate of $30 a semester for schools other than law and medicine, which will cost $40 and $50 respectively, with laboratory fees additional. Non-resident students will not share in the reductions.

The decrease was made possible in part by an extra appropriation granted by the state legislature.

Weathering The Jamboree

Charles Palmquist (right) of Chicago seems to be having a hard time finding something to write home about from the Boy Scout Jamboree at Washington. But if he'd just look out the tent flap, he'd find inspiration for something like this: "Dear Folks: I'm having a hot time here in Washington, even though the rest of the patrol is standing around the campfire, trying to keep warm. It's been so cool you'd never know it was summer . . ."

Senate Committee Hears More Strike Clash Facts

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Lupe Perez Marshall, diminutive Mexican girl, testified today that Chicago police piled 16 wounded men on top of each other in a patrol wagon after the fatal Memorial Day strike clash.

One of them, she told the senate Civil Liberties committee, died in the course of a bumpy ride to the hospital, while others screamed and groaned.

Her testimony followed the showing of a moving picture that depicted police shooting at fleeing strike demonstrators and clubbing fallen men and women.

Other witnesses testified the police shot and clubbed demonstrators who were in full flight. One said a policeman empty his gun into the crowd and reloaded.

The showing of moving pictures, suppressed until today, climaxed the committee's investigation of the steel disturbance, in which ten were killed and many injured.

Meyer Levin, novelist and former newspaperman, testified that he picked up a ten-year-old boy who had been shot, and ran with him, until exhausted, in the direction of the strikers' headquarters. Another witness testified that he saw a policeman empty his gun into the crowd and reloaded.

"Was the policeman in danger at the time he used his gun?" Chairman LaFollette (Prog-Wis.) asked.

"The policeman was not in any danger," the witness, Frank W. McCullough, secretary of the Council for Industrial Action of the Congressional church replied. "He was sixty or seventy feet from the marchers and was cut off by two fences."

Officials of the Chicago police department, who have asserted that the conduct of the police was justified in law, and that all aggressive action was taken in self defense, saw the film and heard the witnesses. "The committee arranged to call them back to the stand."

The picture was taken by a Paramount News cameraman, but officials of that organization ordered it withheld from distribution for fear it might incite demonstrations in the theatres. Today they ordered it released "unedited, as a matter of public service."

Five Members of Roosevelt Family Leave on Various Trips, Excursions

Hyde Park, N. Y., July 2.—(AP)—President Roosevelt, reunited with his family after the marriage of Franklin, Jr., Wednesday, said goodbye today to five of its members as they scattered on various trips and excursions.

Mrs. James Roosevelt, Sr., his 82-year-old mother, and John, the youngest son, left in the afternoon for New York to sail for Europe.

The mother will visit a sister in France, while John tours the continent with a Harvard classmate and other friends.

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt slipped off to New York on an unheated trip with her secretary, Mrs. Malvina Scheider.

Mr. and Mrs. John Boettger, son-in-law and daughter, left the Dutchess County estate early to catch a plane for their home in Seattle.

Between farewells, the president worked on mail and signed bills. In the afternoon he drove his small car to his nearby Val-Kill cottage to approve final construction plans for a fire break back of the farm.

Before going on the drive he approved the design for the new 3-cent stamp in commemoration of the 105th anniversary of the grant of Northwest Territory to the United States.

It is a purple stamp with the Northwest Territory shown in white. The picture of two men who figure in the grant, Manasseh Cutler and Rufus Putnam, also appear.

Amelia Earhart, Fred Noonan Believed Down Near Howland Island In The South Pacific

Honolulu, July 2.—(AP)—Amelia Earhart, the world's best known aviatrix, and her navigator, Fred J. Noonan, were believed forced down at sea today in an $80,000-flying laboratory—somewhere near tiny Howland Island on a daring attempt to span the South Pacific.

Apparently headwinds had exhausted her gasoline within 100 miles of the end of a projected 2,570 mile flight from New Guinea.

The alarming silence of the plane's radio spurred into search the Coast Guard Cutter Itasca from Howland Island when Miss Earhart's estimated gasoline deadline of 6 p. m., C. S. T., passed without word.

(Aviation authorities had varying estimates of how long the monoplane could remain afloat. At Los Angeles, Paul Mantz, an aviation associate, said he believed the craft could float "almost indefinitely.")

A message from the globe-girdling plane, the time of which was translated at Washington by coast guard headquarters as 1:20 p. m. C.S.T., said she had only a half hour's gasoline supply and had not sighted land. A later incomplete message was reported at 2:43 p. m. C.S.T.

Earlier at 12:46 p. m., C.S.T., the plane was approximately 100 miles from the island.

The cutter Itasca, only vessel within several hundred miles of Howland Island, set out at 6:30 p. m. (CST) to hunt the missing plane.

Coast guardsmen here expressed belief aviation's first lady and her companion had overshoot the minute island and come down somewhere in the vast mid-Pacific region far removed from regular shipping lanes.

Bound around the world on an equatorial trail of more than 27,000 miles Miss Earhart had flown since May 21 from Oakland, Calif., in relatively leisurely stages.

Arriving at Lae, New Guinea, June 28, Miss Earhart awaited favorable weather for the attempt to negotiate the unknown miles to Howland Island, the dot of land which represents the United States' frontier in the South Pacific and which is regarded as a potential stepping stone on an air line between the Pacific coast and the Antipodes.

Noonan, Navigator On Earhart Plane, Is Master Mariner

Graduated from Illinois Schools; Sea Was His First Career

Oakland, Calif., July 2.—(AP)—Fred Noonan, 44, master mariner on the sea and in the air, graduated from the old white-winged square-riggers of Atlantic and Pacific sea lanes to the great monoplane of the airways.

Twenty-two years of ocean travel as a navigator preceded his lengthy service as a flier. Seven times he rounded Cape Horn—three times in wind-jammers before completion of the Panama Canal.

He went to sea at the age of 15. Three of his ships were torpedoed in the World War. In the Royal British naval service he served on the Barque Crompton in 1910—the largest square-rigger under the British flag. He was weatherbound 152 days on a voyage from the Pacific northwest to Ireland.

He was navigator of the first clipper ships pioneering the route from Oakland to Honolulu. He resigned after this service had been launched.

Noonan was educated in Chicago public schools, in a private military academy in Illinois, and attended a London nautical college. Last March he married Mary Margarella of Oakland.

He participated in a number of rescues at sea. In one five French soldiers adrift at sea on an ice floe were saved. Another time the crew of a Portuguese fishing crew was rescued after the craft sank.

Gets Damages for Injuries As a Baby

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—George Marettick, 11 years old, was awarded damages of $45,000 today from the South Chicago Community hospital by a jury in superior court for alleged permanent injuries suffered in a fire at the hospital when he was only two weeks old.

Suit for $50,000 was filed in behalf of the boy by his mother, Mrs. Evelyn Marettick Running, who charged the fire started from a snort circuit in an incubator containing another baby and spread to an adjacent crib in which her child was lying.

Royal Irwin, attorney for Mrs. Running, told the jury that burns suffered by the boy prevented hair from growing on the left side of his head and withered the muscles in his left arm and leg.

Howland Island Is Small Air Target

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Howland Island, near which Amelia Earhart's plane was believed to have been forced down, is a 14-mile long treeless sandpit, strategically located on the direct air route between Hawaii and Australia. It is nearly 2,000 miles southwest of Honolulu.

Uninhabited until two years ago, it came into public notice when the committee department took possession of it along with two other Pacific islands, Baker, Jarvis and the Line Islands, more than 1,000 miles to the east.

50 PASSENGERS ARE INJURED ON CHICAGO TRAIN

Sections Of Ashland Limited Collide In Evanston

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—At least 50 passengers aboard the North Western railroad's Ashland Limited were injured tonight when the second section of the train collided with the rear of the first at the Davis street station in suburban Evanston.

Thirty of the injured were taken to Evanston hospitals. Others received first aid treatment from physicians attracted to the scene of the accident.

Both sections were loaded with vacationists bound for a Fourth of July holiday in the north woods of Wisconsin.

Witnesses said the first section was pulling out of the station when it was rammed by the second. Both trains were moving slowly, but the force of the collision crushed the platform and an observation car, uncoupled coaches and shattered windows.

Another train was being made up in Evanston for those who wished to continue their trip. Campbell said early reports indicated no one was hurt seriously. Four railroad employees in the dining car of the first section were reported scalded by hot grease.

The limited left downtown Chicago at 6 p. m. (CST) and was scheduled to arrive at Ashland, Wis., at 8:50 a. m. (CST) tomorrow. The accident occurred about 8:25 p. m. (CST).

W. Schermerhorn of Milwaukee was the engineer in the locomotive of the second section, railroad officials said, and John Steiner of Milwaukee was the fireman.

Purdue President Is Hoping for Safety Of Earhart, Noonan

Aviatrix Consultant for Women at University in Lafayette, Ind.

Lafayette, Ind., July 2.—(AP)—President E. C. Elliott of Purdue University expressed hope tonight Amelia Earhart and her navigator, Fred Noonan, would reach safety after disappearing over the Pacific ocean in an $80,000 "flying laboratory" airplane sponsored by the Purdue University Research Foundation.

"So far, according to the reports I have had, Miss Earhart's position is largely a matter of surmise," Dr. Elliott said. "I wouldn't be apprehensive."

Miss Earhart is consultant on aeronautics and careers for women at Purdue University. Much of her time in the big ship was to be devoted to research into the effects of fatigue on fliers.

She was to have been a speaker at a dinner concluding the Purdue University Institute of Technology tonight. Her place was taken by Governor M. Clifford Townsend and Dr. Walter B. Pitkin of Columbia University.

Newspapers Quit In Trucking Strike

Philadelphia, July 2.—(AP)—Publishers of Philadelphia and Camden, N. J., newspapers suspended publication tonight for the duration of the "emergency" created by the general trucking strike. The publishers made their announcement after a conference with Mayor S. Davis Wilson.

The action was necessary, the publishers said, because of the impossibility of making deliveries and because they did not wish to "subject their employees and the public to danger of serious injury."

The newspapers affected were the Inquirer, the Record, the Evening Bulletin, the Evening Ledger and the Daily News of Philadelphia and the Morning Post and Evening Courier of Camden, N. J.

COUNTER PLAGUE

Maryville, Mo., July 2.—(AP)—Farmers here credited Mother Nature today with an assist in their war on crop-hungry grasshoppers.

They reported tiny red miles of locusts preying on the hoppers and adding thousands to the toll already taken by poisoned bran.

Reaping a Harvest

For the last two months pick-pockets have been doing a flourishing business in towns and rural sections of Central Illinois. Each week reports are made by persons who have been victims. The latest pocket-picking episode was enacted in Pike county, where an 80-year-old man was robbed of $100 in cash while he sat on his front porch.

The old man's eyesight is none too good, and he did not recognize two women who approached him as being gypsies. He conversed with them only a few minutes while they attempted to sell him some medicine, but it was long enough for a transfer of his wallet into their possession.

Last week a Rushville citizen was robbed of $200 in Springfield while walking on one of the principal streets. Several weeks ago there was an epidemic of pocket picking at Beardstown and Pittsfield. A gang engaged in the light-fingered profession also found victims at the New Salem State park celebration near Petersburg last week.

When mingling with Fourth of July crowds it would be well to remember such cases, and not permit strangers to have a chance to engineer a "dip" into your pocket. This act usually is accomplished with a slight shove for which the pickpocket probably would politely beg pardon.

The Scout Jamboree

An important world peace conference opened in Washington Wednesday, a conference not including statesmen or dignitaries but only boys—25,000 boys, representing the United States and 24 other countries. Eight of these boys are from Jacksonville, and many others are from Central Illinois.

For 10 days these Boy Scouts attending the national jamboree come together as ambassadors of good will, exchanging personal experiences and personal belongings and establishing friendships and understandings that will last through life. When the jamboree closes, more than a thousand American Scouts will repay the foreign boys' courtesy call by traveling overseas to attend the world jamboree in the Netherlands, the fifth event of this kind in history.

Leaders in national life unite in agreeing that the jamboree will have a profound effect on our future welfare. Business men point out that the gathering together of 25,000 ambitious, manly boys from all sections of the country will do much to establish tolerance and friendships upon which harmonious business relations grow.

Educators declare the jamboree and its trip and associations will have an educational value equal to a year's schooling. Parents see new opportunities opened for their boys at a cost far below anything they had before hoped for, and the Scouts themselves are receiving new inspiration through contact with the nation's capital, its shrines and traditions.

Thousands of Morgan county people, throughout the years, have lived and labored without ever having visited Washington or directly associating themselves with national or world delegations and mutual understanding. The inspiration of the national jamboree goes far beyond the parenthood of the 10 days in camp. Young Amer-

Some Facts About Dust

Since dust storms have become such a problem in some areas of the country, recent studies of their cause, effects and a search for a remedy reveal some strange and interesting facts. Among the more astonishing is the information that dust from a volcano may travel completely around the world and that cinders from the great Chicago fire in 1871 reached Europe 40 days later.

There are 50,000,000 dust specks in a cubic inch. The dust hangs between thick clouds and such a storm may roll along for hundreds of miles. Dust storms occur in many parts of the world. Ships off Africa's west coast often encounter dust from the Sahara.

Another interesting fact is that dust makes the rain. If there were no dust there could be no rain. Each raindrop needs some solid nucleus on which to form and the dust particles provide these. Dust may come from sand, soil, cotton fiber, plain soil blown from the earth, or many other sources.

Dust storms traveling at terrific rates of speed often decrease visibility to zero. When winds stir up dust over an area of only a few miles, these freak dry fogs are called "local dusts" by the natives of the Texas Panhandle and other parts of the "dust-bowl."

In the period of the past several years soil erosion has grown from a sectional to a governmental problem. Each year since the World War when farmers of the southwest plowed their grasslands in order to raise wheat, the density and frequency of these dust storms have increased.

A "Roamin'" Holiday

England's practice of observing all legal holidays on Monday may be adopted in the United States, under a bill submitted by Senator Edwin C. Johnson of Colorado. Memorial Day and the Fourth of July, observed on Monday this year, are providing a sample of what one might expect were the plan to be made law.

The obvious advantages include a two-day week-end, extra sleeping time, bigger and better picnics, more visitors and more visiting, longer strings of fish and double rounds of golf. But, lurking in the background are some disadvantages. The extra sleep won't quite offset the later hours; the visitors may be the last you hoped to see; dish breakage, flat tires, and mosquito bites will be multiplied by two on outings, and washday and the time clock will still be on hand when Tuesday rolls around.

All in all, when the marathon is over, the old job may look like a long-lost friend. But if the two-day holiday is made permanent by law, there will be little to do but take it and like it.

Warn Against 4th of July Accidents

Prevention of Blindness Group Points to Car and Cracker Dangers

Fireworks and motor cars are a dangerous combination, the Illinois Society for the Prevention of Blindness emphasized Friday in a pre-Fourth of July bulletin.

"The practice of tossing firecrackers and torpedos from cars already has resulted in burns to pedestrians in Illinois communities," the bulletin stated, "and drivers have reported that explosive missiles have been thrown into their cars by youths and children standing on street corners."

The society has enlisted the aid of club groups, parents, and law enforcement agencies in its fight to outlaw the sale of fireworks in Illinois.

"The toll of deaths and injuries is being cut down gradually each year, and we hope that next year will see a large number of Illinois communities ban the sale of fireworks as a danger to life and property," said Miss Audrey M. Hayden, executive secretary of the society.

Fly-by-night roadshows which sell any quantities of oversized firecrackers to children, provide the biggest problem now confronting state authorities. The only solution to the fireworks evil, Miss Hayden asserted, is a complete ban on all fireworks sales and on the unregulated use of the dangerous toys. Displays in the hands of competent persons at public celebrations are endorsed by the society.

THE CONGRESSIONAL TRAIN OF THOUGHT

Local People Visit Dionne Quintuplets Attend Grotto Meet

L. A. Vasconcellos, Family See Famous Children and Find Home Town Boom

Mr. and Mrs. L. Arch Vasconcellos and family returned home Wednesday from a trip which was climaxed with the sight of one of the wonders of the modern world, the Dionne Quintuplets.

On Sunday morning the local residents visited the thriving village of Calendar, Ontario, which is enjoying boom times because of the five little girls who call it their home town. The visitors were shown into a gallery enclosing an oval in front of the Quints' home, and through the glass, they saw the children at play. The gallery was packed with visitors at the time, and throughout the day. Heavy gates, high wire fences and watchful guards keep anyone from coming into direct contact in any way with the children.

Mr. Vasconcellos was greatly impressed with the amount of prosperity the presence of the Quints has brought to the entire area. It is a desolate region, covered with pine trees growing in the midst of rocks and hills. The government is building a road into Calendar at an immense cost, but the money is being provided through the increase in gas tax revenue paid by the tourists.

All over the region new homes are being erected, and Calendar has a new hotel and other modern buildings. The local travelers spent Saturday night in a tourist camp 34 miles south of Calendar, and went into the Quints' home the next morning.

As the official delegate from Zionsville, Mr. Vasconcellos attended the annual convention of the order at Toronto. He reports that Otto F. Hildebrand, who organized the local Grotto several years ago, was elected Grand Monarch. The new head of the order appointed Mr. Vasconcellos a member of the Supreme Council for three years. The local man was placed on the drill contest committee of the council. The 1938 meeting of the order will be held in Cleveland, Ohio.

Mr. Vasconcellos reports good weather throughout the trip. The air was cool and bracing, and the travelers escaped the hot weather here last week. Mr. and Mrs. Vasconcellos were accompanied by their two sons from this city, and Mrs. Don Blackiston of Pontiac.

The Family Doctor

Parent's Example in Diet Excesses Often Leads to Overweight in Child

By DR. MORRIS FISHBEIN
Editor, Journal of the American Medical Association, and of Hygeia, the Health Magazine

In patients who are definitely overweight and who suffer at the same time with disorders of the heart or kidneys, it may be necessary to prescribe complete rest in bed with a diet consisting largely of milk and fruit juices.

Such diets never should be undertaken, however, except under the direction of a physician. In considering the control of overweight, it is always well to remember the tendency of overweight to run in families. Seventy per cent of all those who are overweight usually are found to have mothers or fathers who are also overweight.

This does not mean, however, that the condition is hereditary. Most often it is due to the fact that the children live under the same conditions as do their parents.

If the parents eat too much, the children are likely to eat too much; if the parents exercise too little, therefore the children exercise too little. However, it will be found that the fat is deposited in the same portions of the body as in the adults. This is due to the fact that the body structure of the child is inherited.

In one family the women will tend to fat arms and relatively thin hips, whereas in other families they will have fat hips and relatively thin arms.

Mothers have been so driven to nourish their children adequately that they are constantly between the fires of underweight and overweight. Moreover, the exact weights and heights for children of various ages have not been definitely determined.

Mothers are so anxious to see their children grow that they are likely to urge them into the development of a large appetite. Then the children get to eating more than they require. The fat child usually is being teased by his friends and often he develops a peculiar mental attitude. Simply because the child is fat, he tends to take less exercise. Thus he develops what is called a vicious circle.

Central Illinois Deaths

Mrs. Henry Raker
Carrollton—Mrs. Henry Raker, 44, residing southwest of here, died at 2:30 p. m. Thursday in St. John's hospital, St. Louis.

Decedent, the former Miss Mary Brinker, was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brinker. She was married to Mr. Raker in 1905. She is survived by her husband and two sons, Henry and Donald; her mother, and a sister, Miss Helena Brinker, a nurse in St. Louis; two brothers, Antone and John Brinker, Carrollton.

Funeral services will be held Monday morning at 9 o'clock at the St. John's Catholic church, with interment in St. John's cemetery.

Mrs. Ethel Kerylor
Griggsville—Word has been received by relatives in Griggsville of the death of Mrs. Ethel Kerylor at Stockton, Calif.

Mrs. Kerylor, before marriage, was Miss Ethel Monta of Griggsville and has many friends and relatives here. She is survived by her two daughters, Mrs. Hazel Orr Neville of Merced, Calif., and Mrs. Mary Ann Miller of Hannibal, Mo.; one brother, James Monta, of Bluffs and an aunt, Mrs. Ben Dorsey, of Griggsville.

The body has been cremated and the ashes will be brought to Griggsville later for burial in the Griggsville cemetery.

WhiteHallChurches Will Begin Union Meetings July 4th

Whiteside Park to be Site of Outdoor Meetings; Other News Notes

White Hall—Beginning Sunday, July the Fourth, all of the four Protestant down town churches will join in a series of union meetings to be held in the Whiteside park every Sunday evening, during July and August. The opening service will be patriotic with a union choir and orchestra. The address will be by Rev. Frederic J. Baylis of Bluffs. Rev. Baylis has an interesting history, having been a missionary on the frontier, and a Chattanooga lecturer for a number of years. He has a very pleasing and witty personality and will present a patriotic lecture Sunday evening.

It is planned to have the orchestra give an instrumental prelude each Sunday night during the entire series of open air services. The choir committee is composed of Miss Edith Hyatt, Presbyterian; Mrs. C. C. Brown, Christian; Miss Emma Duncan, Baptist, and Mrs. O. M. Cherry, Methodist.

The schedule of services and speakers are as follows:
July 11—Rev. C. W. Kerst, Baptist.
July 18—Rev. L. D. Stone, Presbyterian.

July 25—Rev. C. L. Lettice, Christian.
August 1—Rev. Kerst.
August 8—Rev. A. E. Linfield, Methodist.

August 15—Rev. L. D. Stone.
August 22—Rev. Linfield.
August 29—Rev. Lettice.

Rev. Linfield will take his vacation in July and Rev. Lettice and Kerst will take theirs in August.
M. E. Class Meets
The Golden Rule class of the Methodist church met at the home of Mrs. R. L. Davis Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Nellie Ferguson and Miss Edith McCollister were assistant hostesses. Mrs. James Galaway, president of the class led the devotionals and Mrs. Nora Mason offered the prayer. A business session followed after which the hostesses served refreshments.

Mrs. W. F. Ellington spent Wednesday with her daughter and family. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hardy in Roodhouse. Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sink and son and daughter, Ralph and Peggy and Miss Jaunita Hanks of Mason City spent Wednesday with Mr. and Mrs. William Dunphy on Sherman street. Mr. Sink also visited his sister Mrs. Maude Yonkers in Roodhouse.

Mrs. J. P. Toner of Denver, Colo. and Miss Alice Greed and her brother, Thomas J. Greed of Baltimore, Maryland arrived Thursday afternoon to visit Mrs. Toner's mother, Mrs. James Painter and her sister, Mrs. Vernon Price until Tuesday or Wednesday of next week. Mrs. Toner has been visiting in Canada and Buffalo, New York as well as at Baltimore and is now enroute home.

Mrs. William Wald entertained the Harmony Sewing club at her home Thursday afternoon. There were ten present including one guest, Miss Ruth Hicks.

Patterson 4-H Club Meets
The Patterson Patisies 4-H club met Thursday afternoon with their senior leader, Mrs. Bert Tankersley with all the members present. This was the fifth meeting and the first time that all members had been present. Following the secretary's report and the business meeting, Betty Day played a piano solo. "Virginia Finishes for Blouses." Elizabeth Tankersley read a poem, "Flowers." The cookie club then gathered in the kitchen to score their cookies. This time they were ice box cookies. The sewing club cut out, fitted and basted dresses. The next meeting will also be at the Tankersley home.

Mrs. Nora Mason of Roodhouse spent Wednesday and Thursday with Mrs. L. W. Tunison.

Mrs. J. E. McAlinney of Greenville will come Friday to visit her sister, Mrs. George Tunison on the farm south of the city. And on Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Robert Whitley of Carlinville will come to spend the day at the Tunison home and help Mrs. Tunison and Mrs. McAlinney to celebrate their birthdays. Mrs. McAlinney's birthday is July 1 and Mrs. Tunison's birthday is July 3. Mr. Whitley is their brother. The celebration will be a very quiet affair this year because Mrs. Tunison recently returned home from the hospital.

Joyce Martin, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Horace Martin residing on West Franklin street, and who has been a surgical patient in the Passavant hospital in Jacksonville was brought to her home Tuesday. She will be confined to her bed for another two weeks.

SUPPOSED DEAD MAN FINDS SEARCH PARTY

Jerseyville—A party searching for the body of Clem Branham Tuesday in the Illinois river was astonished to see the man walk up to them alive and well.

Branham has been shelling on the Illinois river six miles south of the Joz Page bridge. Tuesday morning his hat and other personal effects were found on the river bank and his boat was missing.

After the searching party was organized Branham appeared and explained that his boat had floated away during the preceding night and that he had gone in search of it.

DEAD MAN'S DINNER BUCKET IS RAISED

Bucket in Water Since '33 Found Recently

Irvin Bentley caught something besides mussels recently when he raised his drag bars from the bottom of the Illinois river near Naples. Along with the mussels came a dinner pail, badly rusted, but with the initials E. A. B. still discernable.

Bentley recognized the pail as that belonging to the late Ed Bussen, and the pail was a memento of a disaster. While returning from work on the west bank of the river on Sept. 30, 1933, Ed and five other men were caught by a storm. The boat filled with water, and Bussen, Charles Houston and Kanyon Hurst were drowned. The other three passengers survived.

Inside the pail was a thermos bottle, still in good condition in spite of nearly four years at the bottom of the river.

Bus Company Would Start Service Over Route Along River

Apply for Permit to Run Beardstown-Jerseyville Line via Route 100

The Illinois Commerce Commission recently held a hearing on an application of the Jacksonville Bus Lines to establish bus service from Beardstown to Jerseyville over Route 100. Favorable action on the application is expected by officials of the company any time now, and preparations are being made to start this service.

The line will extend from Beardstown thru Meredosia, Bluffs, Detroit, Pearl, Hardin, and thence to Jerseyville, where it will connect with the main line operating between Jacksonville and St. Louis. The local connection with the other end of the line is the route thru Virginia to Beardstown.

Company officials said Friday it is hoped soon to establish bus service from here to Meredosia, to connect with the proposed new line. Recently the company inaugurated service from this city to Alton by way of Routes 104 and 111 thru Franklin, Waverly, Modesto, Palmyra, Hettick, Chesterfield, Medora, Brighton and Godfrey.

May Display Flags Monday, July 5, But Sunday Proper Date

Double Holiday Brings Up Question Here; Stores to Close Both Days

Some question as to the proper time for displaying flags, owing to the fact that the country is celebrating a double Independence holiday during the week-end. The Fourth of July falls on Sunday, and there can be no other true anniversary date for American independence. The proper time for display of the national colors is therefore Sunday, July 4th.

However, as Monday, July 5, is also being celebrated as a holiday, in order that the more secular phases of the celebration may not be carried out on the sabbath, flags may also be displayed on the fifth, and such a display would be very appropriate, both in the business districts and on private residences.

Local business houses will close Monday, as on Sunday, and a general holiday will be observed. All stores accustomed to close on Sunday will observe the fifth of July closing, and owners and employees are planning various week-end trips.

Budge Wins All-England Net Title Over Baron Von Cramm In Three Sets, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2

Wimbledon, Eng., July 2.—(AP)—Red-headed, 22-year-old American Davis Cup ace from Oakland, Calif., today achieved the highlight of his career when he defeated Baron von Cramm of Germany, 6-3, 6-4, 6-2, in the finals of the all-England singles championship.

New License Fees for Fishing and Hunting Effective

Hunting Licenses to Cost $1.50; Fishing Fee to Mount Jan. 1, 1938.

Increases in license fees for hunting are effective immediately and for fishing will become effective Jan. 1, 1938, according to a notification County Clerk Fred Brockhouse received Friday from the State Department of Conservation. The increases were voted at the session of the legislature which closed early Thursday morning.

Hunting licenses, issued for the period from July 1 to June 30, will cost $1.50 under the new code. Hunting licenses cost $1.00 under the former law.

Fishing licenses, issued to cover the period between Jan. 1 and Dec. 31 each year, will cost 75 cents next year. This fee of 50c, in force this year, will continue in effect until January 1, 1938.

The communication also called attention to a change in the squirrel hunting season. Legal hunting of squirrels begins in the southern zone August 1 in the central zone of which this county is a part, August 15, and in the northern zone Sept. 1. It is illegal to hunt squirrels after November 30 in all zones.

Dip or hoop net, mussel, and bar licenses will continue until their expiration date. There is an increase also in the selling licenses, bringing the total cost to $10 a year. The fee in effect now is $9.75, including a 25 cent fee allotted to persons issuing the licenses.

Basket and trap devices are illegal, the communication points out, and therefore there are no licenses for this method of taking fish.

Budge simply wailed the pants off the world's second-best amateur player before a packed gallery that included Queen Mary. In doing so he looked like perhaps as great a tennis star as ever stepped on Wimbledon's center court.

Most people had entertained a suspicion that the California red-head was going to succeed Britain's Fred Perry, winner last year but now a professional, as much as a fortnight ago when he slapped down Henry Wilfred (Bunny) Austin at the Queens club. But few could have foreseen what happened today.

Perry beat Von Cramm in straight sets, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0, a year ago when the blond baron was sorely crippled after the first game. Budge accomplished the same feat against a man with a sound pair of legs and a stout heart.

The outcome simplifies the entire Davis Cup outlook. Budge appears able to win two matches against any team America meets, whether it's Germany or Czechoslovakia in the inter-zone final, or England in the challenge round. All the United States will need then is one more point. Budge and Gene Mako probably will supply that in the doubles.

As an added reward for his short but brilliant exhibition he had given the gallery of 15,500. Budge was presented to the Queen Mother but he stoutly refused to reveal what she said.

"Did she say you looked great out there?" one of his teammates asked. The red-headed Californian wouldn't answer.

With the main prize safely in the bag, Budge will go out tomorrow for his share in two other Wimbledon titles.

He and Gene Mako of Los Angeles spotted Von Cramm and Heinrich Henkel of Germany two sets in the men's doubles semi-finals and then pulled the match out of the fire with a sensational rally, 4-6, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 6-3.

In the finals tomorrow Budge and Mako will meet the crack British combination of George Patrick Hughes and C. R. D. Tuckey, the defending champions.

In addition the California red-head will team up with Alice Marble of San Francisco in the mixed double finals against Yvon Petra and Mme. Simone Mathieu of France.

Dave Lawless Joins Redlegs for Games

Former Bi-State Manager to Play Outfield, Pitch in Week-end Games

Dave Lawless, former manager of the Leaksville-Spray club in the Bi-State league, has returned to this city and will play with the Jacksonville State Hospital team in games scheduled for the holiday week-end. Lawless resigned as manager of the club about two weeks ago.

The Redlegs will play Shipmans of Jacksonville here Saturday afternoon, and Monday will meet the Decatur State in the feature of a Fourth of July celebration. Lawless may take the mound for the local club against the Decatur club. He will play in the outfield against the Jacksonville team.

Either George Payne or Paul Orr will pitch against the Jerseyville team, with Wallace, of Springfield, doing the receiving. The remainder of the Redleg line-up will consist of Besley at first, either Murgatroyd or Hayes at second, Majewski of Springfield at short, Huban at third, and Barnes and Hood in the outfield.

Both games will be called at 2 p.m.

Red Sox Defeat Athletics, 8 to 4

Boston, July 2.—(AP)—The Red Sox celebrated their return to their Fenway stadium grounds today, thanks to homers by Ben Chapman and Buster Mills, with an 8-4 victory over the Athletics.

Although the visitors took all sorts of liberties with John (Footsie) Marcum, that righthander found himself the leading Boston pitcher, with seven wins and four defeats, after Archie McKain saved the slam-bang game for the Sox.

Marcum gave the A's eight hits in his six frames, including a homer by Russ Peters with two on in the first. By innings: R H E Philadelphia ..... 300 000 100-4 11 2 Boston ..... 101 102 038-8 10 0 Batteries: Caster, Nelson, Gumpert and Brucker; Marcum, McKain and Berg.

Qualifying Rounds of Park Tournament Close at 6 P. M. Sunday; Match Play Monday

Golfers who participate in the Nichols Park annual open tournament have until 6 o'clock Sunday evening to shoot qualifying rounds, a chore which already has been done by 48 players who are hopeful of the high honors that are always heaped upon the champion.

Indications last night were that four full flights will get into the championship race. Officials of the park golf committee announced that a consolation tournament will be held along with the championship event, so that the whole affair has lots of appeal.

Jerome Barber boasts the low score of the qualifying round thus far with a 69. Albin Ketter turned in a 73 and Maddox a 74. Joe Doyle, the current champ is not required to qualify but will be very much in the midst of things trying to repeat his feat of last season. Willie Barber and James Buckley are expected to turn in impressive lows, judging from past performances.

Immediately after the last qualifying rounds Sunday evening, the tournament committee will make drawings for match play which will start on Monday. The first round of match play will continue through Sunday, July 11.

The eight players eliminated in each flight will enter a consolation tournament. Prizes will be awarded winners and runners-up in both flights of the championship and consolation tournaments.

Signs will be placed in conspicuous places on the course calling attention of players to ground rules on holes 3 and 9.

Greens and fairways of the park course continue to be in excellent condition. The weather has been highly favorable to the entire course.

Chicago White Sox Beaten by St. Louis Browns' Rally, 4 to 2

St. Louis, July 2.—(AP)—Jim Walkup turned in a 6-hit pitching job for the seventh place St. Louis Browns today and played a major part in his team's 4 to 2 victory over the up-and-coming Chicago White Sox.

Walkup didn't fan a batter but after the sixth allowed only one hit, which did no damage. Mike Kreevich's fifth inning triple, which drove in John Whitehead from first with what appeared to be the winning run for the Sox until the Browns' big eighth, was a legitimate single which bounced over Sammy West's head.

In the fourth with men on second and third and only one out, Walkup forced Hayes to go to him and then deflected Jimmy Dykes' blow to Knickerbocker who threw the Chicago manager out.

Dykes futilely protested in the third that Benny Huffman, Browns' catcher, had tipped his bat. In the seventh Luke Sewell was sent to first when home plate umpire, Emmett "Red" Ormsby ruled the rookie receiver had tipped the bat with his glove.

MacMurray to Have Riding Academy

Bridle Path to Follow Road Around Mauvaisterre Lake

Plans for a riding academy for the use of MacMurray College students are virtually complete, it was learned Friday. Beginning this fall, facilities for instruction and practice in horsemanship riding will be available. The academy will be situated south of the dormitory, near the brook. A bridge path starting there will follow the new road around Mauvaisterre Lake.

Plans for the bridge path indicate that the entire course will be on dirt roads, except for necessary crossings of Hardin avenue and Route 36.

Hubbell, Giants Whip Bees, 6 to 2

New York, July 2.—(AP)—King Carl Hubbell was back with all his stuff today and pitched the Giants to a 6 to 2 victory over the Boston Bees for the New Yorkers' sixth straight victory.

Allowing but seven hits and fanning seven, Hubbell chalked up the third straight win in his comeback campaign and his 11th of the season, against four setbacks. Only one extra base blow was struck off him—Rabbit Warstler's homer with the sacks empty in the fifth.

He was given a 13-hit attack by his mates to work on, and breezed in with the decision before a crowd of 11,524 at the polo grounds to enable the Giants to remain a slim half-a-game back of first place.

By innings: R H E Boston ..... 001 010 000-2 7 0 New York ..... 010 012 000-8 13 2 Batteries: MacPayden, Hutchinson and Lopez; Hubbell and Mancuso.

Washington Beats New Yorkers, 8 to 3

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Bump Hadley's usual luck ran out on him today and the Senators clubbed him for an 8 to 3 victory over the New York Yankees.

In spite of Joe DiMaggio's 17th homer of the year, murderers' row couldn't do much with the offerings of Carl Fischer and Ed Linke and managed to collect a total of only six hits, compared to the nine given up by Hadley and Blubber Malone.

The defeat snapped a Yankee winning streak at four straight and made it four straight for Washington without a loss. About 15,000 fans turned out for the series opener.

By innings: R H E New York ..... 000 003 000-3 2 2 Washington ..... 104 000 218-8 9 1 Batteries: Hadley, Malone and Dickey; Fischer, Linke and R. Ferrell.

Brooklyn Blanks Phillies, 3 to 0

Philadelphia, July 2.—(AP)—The Brooklyn Dodgers, after being shut out in three of their last four starts, applied the whitewash brush themselves today by blanking the Phillies 3 to 0 behind the tight hurling of their 30-year old rookie, Luke Hamlin.

The victory ended the Dodgers losing streak at four straight, and stretched the Phils' losing run to five. By innings: R H E Brooklyn ..... 010 200 000-3 11 1 Philadelphia ..... 000 000 000-0 7 0 Batteries: Hamlin and Phelps; Mulcahy, Jorgens and Grace.

Announce Program for Union Service

Rev. Lothian, Northminster, to Be Speaker at Lawn Meeting Sunday Night

The union Sunday evening services have been growing in interest and attendance. Because of the inclemency of the weather the meetings have been held indoors heretofore. Next Sunday weather permitting the service will be held on Grace church lawn.

The Reverend G. Schillerstrom will preside, and Northminster will have charge of the program. The Reverend H. Lothian will be the speaker. The theme for the message is "Truth and Liberty". The Northminster choir will sing. The drum corps will march to the church from Central Park and play before the service.

Chicago Cubs Rally in Ninth To Beat Pirates, 8-7; Homers Help Bruins to Retain Lead

Chicago, July 2.—(AP)—A ninth inning home run with one on by Augie Galan, the Cubs' fourth round tripper of the game, enabled the Chicagoans to edge out Pittsburgh, 8 to 7, and cling to their slender half game league lead today.

Despite earlier homers by Frank DeMaree, Billy Jurgens and Gabby Hartnett, the Cubs trailed by a run going into their ninth, chiefly because of some persistent hitting by the Waner boys and a homer by Gus Suhr, all off Larry French. Paul Waner got a double and three singles and Lloyd Waner a double and single.

With one out in the ninth, Ken O'Dea batted for relief pitcher, Curt Davis, and drew a pass. A moment later Galan cleared the right field bleachers with his season's 13th homer, scoring Tucker Stainback, who ran for O'Dea, ahead of him.

Galan's smash saved the Cubs from losing the league lead they have enjoyed since June 15, as the second place New York Giants defeated Boston. A Ladies' Day crowd of 23,998, of whom 9,498 were cash patrons, saw the Cubs pull victory out of the fire.

Red Lucas went the distance for Pittsburgh and yielded 11 hits. French was touched for 12 in seven innings. Davis, in getting credit for his first win of the year, pitched one-hit shut out ball during his two relief innings.

BRICK YOUNG continues to protest the ousting of the Bloomington Club from the Three I league.... He claims that metropolitan newspapers have refused to carry the true facts of the case, but anticipates that the Bloomington fight will be justified in a decision which Judge Bramham has been asked to make in connection with the ouster.... Bloomington was in the red $5,000, and saw as its only chance of getting out of the hole the sale of players and additional revenues.....

Earhart, Noonan Believed Down Near Howland

July 2, which was 6 p. m. Thursday, (CST), expecting to complete the flight in 18 or 20 hours.

The navy tug Ontario stood by half-way between New Guinea and Howland but was not heard from. The Itasca, waiting to receive Miss Earhart at the island, received only the barest reports of her progress until the message came that her fuel was about gone.

The next nearest land to Howland is Jarvis Island, a similar mid-Pacific dot 40 miles north. Outside of these virtual sandbars there is nothing but water for hundreds of miles.

"Her six gasoline tanks, with a total capacity of 1,000 gallons, provide extraordinary flotation. They are sealed when empty and will act the same, if she is down in the Pacific, as big drums attached to a raft," said Mantz, long an adviser to Miss Earhart.

"I am convinced that she would be able to keep afloat long enough for any vessel within several miles to reach her."

Howland Island is many hours behind eastern time and daylight still existed there with a smooth sea and good visibility prevailing.

"The plane should float but I couldn't estimate for how long because a Lockheed plane has never been forced down at sea before," explained George Palmer Putnam, her husband, at Oakland, Calif.

"There was a two-man rubber lifeboat aboard the plane, together with life belts, flares, a very pistol and a large yellow signal kite which could be flown above the plane or the life raft."

Putnam said his wife had planned to take emergency food rations and plenty of water on the hazardous flight, the most dangerous on her trip around the world.

Miss Earhart is no stranger to ocean flying emergencies and Noonan, former navigator of trans-Pacific clippers, is noted for his ability in that line.

The noted woman flier went through her first flying emergency in 1928 when she and Wilmer Stutz and Lou Gordon flew across the Atlantic.

In 1932 she flew across the Atlantic alone. In January, 1936, she flew solo from Honolulu to Oakland, across 2,400 miles of the Pacific.

Starting off last spring on her first attempt at a world circling flight in the equatorial regions, Miss Earhart flew from Oakland to Honolulu but cracked up there in attempting to take off for Howland Island, more than 1,500 miles to the south.

In many previous brushes with potential death, Miss Earhart again escaped injury, shipped her plane back to California and determined to start again.

Once more she left Oakland last May, determined to fly around the world, this time in an easterly direction. On June 1 she left Miami, Fla., flew to South America, across the Atlantic to Africa, over Arabia, India and Australia to British New Guinea, where she faced the most difficult of all her projected flights.

Aviators who inspected Miss Earhart's plane after its crashup here last spring said its aluminum frame made it durable and possibly able to withstand some of the sea's pounding. The empty gas tanks, of 1,151 gallons capacity, also were regarded as potential life floats.

Fliers said the plane's radio would be workable from the surface of the sea unless damaged in landing.

An airplane, tossing about on the Pacific swells offers a poor objective to vessels seeking it, she once pointed out.

In the event of a landing at sea Miss Earhart planned to inflate a rubber raft, raise her colored kite and try to rig an emergency radio antenna.

Earlier, the coastguard had ordered the Cutter Roger B. Taney to proceed from Honolulu to Howland Island to aid in the search for Miss Earhart.

However, the Taney was undergoing repairs and could not participate.

TWO WOMEN SUFFER RIB FRACTURES IN JERSEY THIS WEEK

Jerseyville—Two unusual accidents occurred in Jerseyville this week. On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Robert Beasley sustained five fractured ribs and sprained her left ankle while hanging wall paper at her home.

It is understood that a piece of the molding around the ceiling of the room came loose while she was papering and she lost her balance, falling against the ladder in such a manner that severe injuries were suffered.

The second accident took place on the campus of the Jersey Township high school when Anna Dell Wade, twelve year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Wade of this city, had three ribs fractured while watching a diamond ball game.

The mishap occurred during a game between the Jerseyville Motor company team and the Shoe factory team. It is reported that Junior Day, a player on the former team threw his bat after striking a ball, and the little girl was struck in the chest by the flying club. She was taken to the Jerseyville hospital for treatment.

The Grasshopper Scourge

A 50-acre field near Hugo, Colo., that once bore a thriving bean crop three inches high, is shown here, as federal and state investigators found it reduced to a caked, barren waste by the grasshopper scourge that is destroying thousands of acres of valuable farm crops in western and southwestern states. Only 24 hours' time was needed by the insects to strip the soil of every bit of vegetation, including weeds.

Jersey Sportsmen's Plan Model Plane Contest for July 16

Game Propagation and Feeding Program Increases Need for Funds

Jerseyville.—The Jerseyville Chapter of the sportsmen's club of Jersey county will put on a membership campaign at once. The dues for a year are seventy-five cents and this money will be expended for game feeding and propagation.

At the present the club is raising a quota of more than two hundred young pheasants which are to be released in about a month. The birds were received here early in June when they were two weeks old and taken to a brooder house and runway at the Pete Rodimer place in the eastern part of the city.

About fifteen of the birds died, but the others have made a splendid growth and will be old enough to release about the middle of July.

Lawrence Ferguson, secretary of the Jerseyville club stated today that the organization plans to release the birds on lands of club members. "This decision," stated Ferguson, "we hope will have a tendency to bring in the memberships without a lot of personal solicitation."

"We believe also that birds released on club members lands will be afforded every chance to reach maturity and obtain protection from ruthless killers in the future."

Jersey county sportsmen report that the present season has been a favorable one for quail. The young birds are in large numbers in many localities.

Roodhouse Kiwanis Hold Regular Meet

Will Meet Again July 6; Hear Many Reports; Other Roodhouse News

Roodhouse.—The Kiwanis Club of Roodhouse met Monday evening in the Methodist church with 28 members attending. Supper was served at 6:30 by the wives of the club members, it being decided at previous meetings that the wives would serve the meals.

A business session was conducted by the president, Dr. E. W. Thomas and reports were given by W. O. Harp and Ralph Beck upon the International Convention of the Kiwanis Club held at Indianapolis, Indiana from June 21 to 24th. Miss Cella Korisch entertained by giving readings. The next meeting will be July 6 in the church basement, with supper served by the wives.

The Mount Olive Home Makers Club met Thursday at the home of Mrs. Irvin Jones with 12 members present. Those attending were Mesdames Willy, Harry Mitchell, Leo Hawkins, Jas. Wyatt, Roy Hudson, Albert McConathy, Howard Tiffany, Ed Strommatt, and Misses Celia Sharp, Geneva Wyatt and Thelma Hudson. A paper was read by Mrs. Willy the topic being "Father in the Home." Refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting will be July 8 at the home of Mrs. Albert McConathy.

Dr. S. D. Welch a dental graduate of Washington University of St. Louis, Mo., is assisting Dr. E. C. Cline in his dental office. Dr. Cline has been ill the past four months and will now resume office practice assisted by Dr. Welch.

Roodhouse Rotary Club met Tuesday at the noon hour with dinner being served to 18 members. C. T. Bates was in charge of the program and Clarence Whitney entertained the club with a version of his trip to Springfield last week during Boy's State Camp week, telling of his doings and experiences. W. A. Jolley will have charge of the next meeting July 6.

FROM DUBUQUE
 Mrs. C. R. Short has just returned from Dubuque, Iowa, where she spent two weeks visiting her daughter, Mrs. L. E. Woods, and family.

Many youngsters are participating in club groups and supervised play at the "Y" Center and play grounds. A group of boys, ages up to 16, report at the "Y" Center every Monday, Wednesday and Friday afternoon for the Model Airplane Club, under the supervision of Howard Olson, Instructor of Federal Recreation. These boys are building model airplanes now for an airplane contest to be held on July 16.

There is a group of young girls who meet at the "Y" Center every afternoon making paper flowers and dressing up mannequin dolls. A large group of youngsters meet every day at the old academy ground, now used as a play ground, to participate in supervised play, under Mrs. Myrtle Woods, Federal Recreation Instructor. Mrs. Woods has taken the youngsters on a picnic to the Nichols park where they enjoyed play and swimming. They left in the early afternoon and returned in the evening. More picnics are planned for youngsters.

For junior girls and boys soft ball and hard ball games are being played with Louise Woods as manager for girls teams and Freeman Hopper, manager for boys. There is girls' soft ball practice Tuesday and Thursday afternoon at the Jefferson School and Wednesday and Friday at the Franklin School. The girls' team, Jacksonville Aces, will play Chapin tonight at the Chapin field.

The junior boys practice hard ball at the high school athletic field every afternoon. The "Rookies" played the Dunbar Colored team Thursday afternoon. More games are scheduled for the near future.

Any boy or girl interested in any event is invited to attend.

Accuse U. S. With Fostering Turmoil

Claim Mexico's Trouble Due This Country's Actions

Warsaw, Poland, July 2.—(AP)—Alexandro Carrillo, Mexican delegate to the International Federation of Trade Unions Congress, charged today that the United States for 25 years has "supported internal turmoil in Mexico to further its own selfish and imperialistic aims."

"The United States are the Germany of the American continent," he said.

Carrillo's attack came after the executive committee had adopted a resolution expressing solidarity with "democratic Spain" and urging all members of the League of Nations to take action in order to save world peace.

Carrillo urged European countries to defend the Spanish republic, adding:

"Through twenty-five years of fighting against United States imperialism Mexico knows the meaning of civil war incited by a foreign country."

Franco's Army Has Reached Santander Province in Drive

Squadrons Bomb City for Sixth Time in Two Days; Many Wounded

Madrid, July 2.—(AP)—Insurgent Generalissimo Francisco Franco's forces reported today they had reached Santander province, which contains the city of Santander, their major remaining objective in north-west Spain.

Capture of 2,000-foot Mount Mello, insurgent officers reported, gave them a foothold in the province south of Somorrostro. Another insurgent column was reported advancing westward along the Valmaseda and Castro Urdiales highway.

Defense commanders, however, asserted their Asturian-Basque line was withstanding several days of heavy pressure in the Somorrostro mining area although it was in danger of being flanked by an insurgent tangent toward the coast.

Insurgent squadrons bombed Santander for the sixth time in two days, wounding many inhabitants and damaging several buildings.

A government air fleet reported the destruction of several planes in a raid on a flying field at Seville.

Fight to Sidetrack Federal Court Bill

Foes Use Robinson Substitute as Argument

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Opponents of the Roosevelt court bill used the substitute proposed today by Senator Robinson (D., Ark.) as an argument for sidetracking the entire issue.

They contended the new measure should be referred to the judiciary committee, which studied the original bill but did not investigate alternate proposals.

The foes expressed confidence the committee would bury the Robinson bill, at least for the remainder of this session.

Administration forces fought this procedure. The test will come next week when Senator Robinson, the Democratic leader, moves that his bill be debated instead of the Roosevelt measure.

Robinson suggested appointment of new justices to the court at the rate of one a year, if members over 75 do not retire. Any increase would be temporary, with a return to the present size as the older justices retired or died.

The original Roosevelt bill calls for immediate appointment of a new justice for each incumbent over 70. The court would remain at the increased size.

The Robinson bill also would limit the appointment of additional lower judges to a maximum of 20, instead of the 50 fixed in the president's bill. Any increases there would be temporary.

A new clause was written into the substitute to expedite supreme court trial of lower court decisions involving the constitutionality of acts of congress.

Going Western the Short Way

When Reno officials decreed western garb for July Fourth, Irene Delroy came out like this, and it was a case of the queen could do no wrong. Kangaroo court officials decided going western with Miss Delroy would be a pleasure. The famous New York actress was in the Nevada city to divorce her 1932 husband, William L. Austin, Jr.

Inquest on Murder Of Three Girls Cut Short by Attorney

Says Testimony Might Reveal Facts Allowing Attacker to Escape

Inglewood, Calif., July 2.—(AP)—District Attorney Byron Fitts cut short an inquest today into the criminal assault and strangulation of three small girls last Saturday because "too much testimony at this time might reveal facts that would enable the murderer to elude officers."

Haskell Wright and Ferdinand North, described as "key witnesses" who could identify the slayer, mingled with the crowd at the funeral of Madeline, 7, and Malba Everett, 9, sisters, today. They were sent on the possibility the killer might be drawn there.

The third victim, Jeanette Stephens, 8, was buried yesterday.

PLAN TO RESTRICT SALE OF FIREWORKS

Springfield, Ill., July 2.—(AP)—Fire marshals of three states were drafting a uniform law today to restrict the sale and use of fireworks to supervised public displays.

Sherman V. Coultas, Illinois fire marshal, who as president of the Fire Marshals Section of the National Protection Association, named the committee to formulate a uniform plan for the various states, said only Iowa, Kentucky, Michigan and New Jersey have "fairly comprehensive legislation" of this kind.

"Over the years more persons have lost their lives, and far more have been maimed, crippled and blinded in celebrating the winning of our War for Independence than died or were permanently disabled in fighting the war," Coultas said.

State Fire Marshal J. V. Pyle of Iowa was named chairman of the committee which also includes Fire Marshals Clem Smith of Indiana and E. J. Burrill of Michigan.

FIREMEN BUILD WATER COOLER; DIDN'T WORK

Shelby, N. C., July 2.—(AP)—Local firemen had to pour hot water on their fountain to get cool water.

The laddies, tired of tepid water, rigged up refrigerating apparatus from several coils of pipe, an old drink stand, and other accessories.

The gadget worked too well, and the boys had to thaw out an eight-inch layer of ice on the pipes before the water would flow.

DR. JAQUITH RETURNS
 Dr. Harold C. Jaquith has returned from Detroit, Mich., where he addressed the annual convention of the National Education Association on June 30. Dr. Jaquith went to Detroit from the East, where he was honored with a doctor of laws degree from Trinity College June 21.

Bert Lukeman and family of Franklin were among the out of town callers in Jacksonville yesterday.

Treasur Reports On Tax Collection During Fiscal Year

Receipts Top Estimates but Expenses Exceeded Forecast Considerably

Washington, July 2.—The treasury reported today the tax collections topped President Roosevelt's revised estimates by $60,000,000 during the fiscal year ended Wednesday midnight. Federal spending exceeded his forecast by $221,000,000.

Government receipts for the year were reported at $5,293,849,686, compared with $4,115,956,615 in the previous year.

Expenditures declined, staying at $5,105,158,547 compared with $5,879,798,297 in the previous year.

Income taxes, the government's chief revenue producer, put $2,172,261,061 in the treasury during the 1937 fiscal period just ended, or $62,000,000 more than Mr. Roosevelt's forecast last April.

As of June 30, the public debt totaled $36,424,613,723, compared with $37,775,543,493 on June 30, 1936.

Last year's net deficit, excluding $103,000,000 for debt retirement, was $2,707,347,110, compared with a revised estimate of $2,557,000,000 and deficit last year of $4,280,601,492.

Advocates Stark As Secretary of Navy

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Representative Clarence Cannon of Elmhurst, Mo., said today he hoped to see Governor Lloyd C. Stark of Missouri become secretary of the navy some time in the future.

Cannon, a close personal and political friend of the governor, said, however, he did not expect the post to become vacant anytime soon.

"But in the event of a vacancy in the future," he said, "Governor Stark undoubtedly will have the unanimous support of Missouri's democratic leaders. He would be very acceptable to the navy also, having many close friends in key positions."

NAVY PROMOTIONS

Washington, July 2.—(AP)—Illinois men eligible for navy promotions included William D. Hoover, Taylorville; Carlyle L. Helber, Red Bud, and Kenneth Berner, Savanna, elected to the rank of lieutenants to lieutenant commanders, June 30; Adolph J. Miller, East St. Louis and Francis J. ## Anniversary Party for Mrs. Gerhardt

New Berlin Woman Given

Surprise Party;

News Notes

New Berlin.—Mrs. George Gerhardt was pleasantly surprised Sunday afternoon on the occasion of her birthday anniversary. The affair was planned by her daughter, Miss Freda Gerhardt, Mrs. Wallie Long and Mrs. Henry Kornick. They had started a friendship quilt for her sometime ago and had it quilted and ready for her birthday. Her grandchildren entertained with a program, after which ice cream and cake were served. The following ladies enjoyed the afternoon:

The Mesdames George Luken, Fred Duener, Harold Ruddle, Dave Gerhardt, George Esche, Anna Basse, Henry Schulte, John L. Horn, Herman Boston, Henry Duener, Wm. Dunlap, Robert White, August Duener, John Brown, Wm. Dunlap, Henry Lueth, E. W. Hein, Gottlieb DeMuth, Gus Duener, Henry Kloppe, Wm. Long, Elizabeth Hauptman, Geo. Eckhardt, Mrs. Puls, and the Misses Lizzie Rustemeyer, Marie Carlock, Anna and Louise Eckhardt, Anna Walter, and Anna Horn.

Miss Wilma Pfeiffer, Miss Helen McGinnis, Mrs. Harold Zude and Mrs. Robert White of New Berlin made up one of the tables at the benefit bridge party given at the State Hospital in Jacksonville Monday night. Mrs. Harold Zude held high score.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Noel and daughter Nancy from Jackson, Tenn., have been the guests of their uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb DeMuth this week.

Carroll Jones of Mayeville, Ill., is spending his vacation with his uncle, Vernon Kirby and wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Jabsen, Jr. of Chicago were guests of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Jabsen, Sr. several days this week.

Mr. James Hitt, Jr., is enjoying a visit from Mr. Bud Lawson of Kirkwood, Mo.

Mrs. J. F. Short, with the Misses Ruth and Virginia Wallbaum of Ashland, drove to Bloomington Friday.

He's Devouring Western Crops

Typical of the grasshopper pest currently plaguing western and southwestern farm lands is the insect shown above in actual size, often measuring three and four inches in length. The "hopper" pictured here was one of the millions which descended upon Oklahoma farms. Wingless, they crawled across fields, stripping thousands of acres of vegetation. If they develop wings, they are the African variety, agricultural agents said.

where they spent the week-end attending the Annual World Wide Guide House Party. Some 150 girls attended and the New Berlin Guild was one of twenty-four who won an honor certificate for efficiency in Guild work.

Mr. Walter Deffner left Tuesday for a vacation in Columbus, Wisconsin, and Cleveland, Ohio.

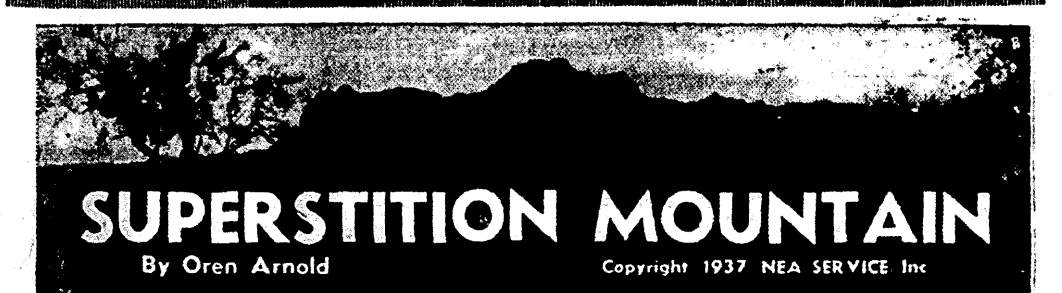

Mr. Walter Winneborg was a Chicago visitor this week attending the Miners Operators convention.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Wenneborg, Charlotte and William, are motoring through Kentucky this week and seeing the sights of Mammoth Cave.

Mrs. James Colvin was hostess to the Social Workers club Wednesday. The afternoon was spent in quilting.

The Ladies Aid of the Baptist church is holding an ice cream social in Wabash Park, July 8th.

Mrs. O. P. Wenneborg had the painful misfortune this week to catch her hand in the washing machine, crushing it badly. Dr. Maxwell was called, and dressed the hand, but it is causing her a lot of suffering.

SUPERSTITION MOUNTAIN

By Oren Arnold Copyright 1937 NEA SERVICE Inc

CAST OF CHARACTERS
CAROLEE COLTER, heroine, prospectors' daughter.
STUART BLAKE, eastern "under tourist," Carolee's lover.
HENRY COLTER, prospector.
PAUL AND SILAS COLTER, prospectors' sons.
NINA BLAKE, Stuart's sister.

Yesterday Stuart becomes lost in the mountains, suffers delirium, and finally falls asleep on a patch of buck brush, utterly exhausted.

CHAPTER VIII

THERE was nothing especially romantic about the way they found Stuart Blake. Silas Colter saw him first, and grasped his father's arm.

"Ain't—ain't that a man away over yonder?" He was staring in the distance.

It was a man, undoubtedly. Silas unconsciously cocked the rifle he carried. The man was staggering, half crawling. But he wasn't menacing. He hadn't even seen the Colters, in fact.

Carolee was with the Colters that day, but that was just happenstance. She had hung out her sheet signal on the morning after her experience with Stuart, but he had not met her down trail.

This had piqued her considerably; she'd wait a week or more before she tried to signal him again, she promised herself. Free Colter had gone alone to study the high plateau country, and Silas and the father had spent a day at wood gathering. On the second day they and Carolee went mine hunting.

She saw the man in the distance, but didn't recognize him. "He's in trouble, isn't he?" she demanded.

They had no field glasses, and he was several hundred yards away. They turned to get nearer him.

"It's that Blake fellow!" Old man Colter recognized him first.

"Oh!" cried Carolee. They all spurred their horses to move as fast as the rugged terrain permitted.

STUART still didn't see them. He appeared not to see them even when they dismounted in his presence. He had been deceived by many a mirage.

"Stuart!" Carolee spoke to him. Nobody noticed her familiarity. He didn't answer. He couldn't have answered anyway. He just stared. Blanking. His face was

Investigate Cause of Explosion That Killed 3, Hurt 20

Nation's First Major Fire-

works Catastrophe; Blast

Rocks Store Building

Nampa, Idaho, July 2.—(P)—Children at play were blamed by officials today as they started an investigation of a fireworks explosion in which three persons were killed and 20 others maimed and injured. It was the nation's first major pre-Independence Day catastrophe.

Fire Chief L. T. Lessinger said a child touched off a fireworks window display yesterday that turned a crowded combination drug store and beauty parlor into an inferno of darting explosives.

Mrs. T. C. Daniels, 29, her dress a sudden sheet of flame, died in the store.

Three-year-old Katherine Miller and two-year-old Ardrey Pavak, rushed to hospitals with 15 other victims, died within a few hours.

Katherine's mother, Mrs. Ernest Miller, 28, and Mrs. George Le Delle, 38, of nearby Marsing, were burned horribly.

Several of the other victims suffered broken arms and legs in addition to powder burns.

Coroner William Talley said an inquest would be held to determine the cause of the blast, and Sheriff Harold Meyer remarked, "We'll talk to the surviving victims and then decide what to do."
